AFIC calls for immediate release and medical attention at a civilian hospital for Mr Hisham Abu Hawash and all administrative Palestinian detainees who are on hunger strike

AFIC is extremely concerned about the health and safety of Mr Hisham Abu Hawash who was arbitrarily detained by Israeli authorities.

“Numerous international bodies have raised concern, I would like to call on the international community and the Australian government to immediately secure the release of this prisoner and others in similar situations and to arrange for their urgent medical care.” Said AFIC president Dr Rateb Jneid
